In the past fortnight we have seen the concert and performance season get underway. This started with a sensational piano recital in the Thornely Studio by Peter Noke and Julian Hellaby. We then had our first Scholars' Recital of the year, and it was particularly good to welcome some of our new Y9 pupils to the stage - as well as some more experienced performers. Very well done to all for a highly enjoyable hour of music.

We look forward to Friday's 'Night at the Musicals' in Powell Hall, which will involve around 200 pupils on stage - a fantastic achievement considering that we are so early in the year, and again it is good to see so many pupils getting involved in something like this for the first time.

Chapel choir have been on top form this weekend with a moving anthem during Michael Raw's Memorial service as well as a powerful performance of 'O Thou the Central Orb' during our commemoration of Benefactors service on Sunday.

Finally, thanks very much to Joe (Y13, H) for launching this year's music assemblies with such a strong and engaging performance of Vaughan-Williams' 'The Vagabond'. It was the perfect start to what will undoubtedly be a varied series of performances every Thursday throughout the year.

DRAMA

@SedberghDrama

Rehearsals for Grease are building momentum as we start to bring the music to life. The 'Burger Palace Boys' were in full flow on Thursday afternoon learning the dance moves to Greased Lightning led by our Kenickie, Jamie (Y13, S).

LAMDA is increasingly popular with our pupils. Last year we had an excellent showcase of monologues before the pupils practical exams for them to show off their hard work. The next opportunity to see these students in action will be in our next Collegium Musicum Recital where they will be combining with the music departments singers to bring the poetry of 'A Shropshire Lad' by Housman to life. This recital will take place in the lead up to Remembrance day on the 9th November in the school chapel. This is free for students, staff and parents. To book a free ticket, please go to trybooking.co.uk/CPYH or use the link on the school website.

Digital Creator of the week

Will (Y11, S)

Taizo (Y13, S)

Artist of the Week

Tamara (Y13, L)

India (Y13, R)

Its all 'lights camera action' in digital media as students get creative with their shots. Head over to our twitter to see more fantastic images captured by our pupils.

Meanwhile in Art, we are looking forward to the Big Draw which kicks off in October. This is a part of the world wide festival of drawing! Every single pupil (including the prep school) will create a drawing that will be displayed in the art gallery for all to see. We can't wait to see what you all come up with.
