What a joyful start to the term. The year 13 artists have excelled over the Christmas break and the quality and the execution of the paintings below by India and Feyi are superb!

MUSIC

 @SedberghMusic

Chapel Choir are National Finalists!

Just as the Michaelmas term came to an end, we received some excellent news, in that the Chamber Choir had reached the final seven of the prestigious Barnardo's 'Choir of the Year' competition. This means that the choir will travel to Birmingham in March, having the privilege of singing in the Symphony Hall there, and doubtless having a fantastic experience irrespective of the final outcome of the competition.

The competition allows for a group of 35-40 singers, which is larger than our Chamber Choir, so an audition process was run in the first week of term ahead of intensive training for the event. Watch this space!

Good luck, Joe!

Joe (Y13, Hart House), our outstanding Head Chorister, received some truly amazing news over the break. Having already received offers from four of the five conservatoires to which he had applied, he was just waiting to hear back from Julliard School of Music - knowing that any vaguely positive reply following the initial screening process would be tremendous... so you can imagine how excited we were to learn that he was invited to an in-person audition in NYC in March. Obviously we have given him some jet lag tips as he will dash back for the Jazz & Swing evening!

DRAMA

 @SedberghDrama

We had a fantastic response from Years 9 and 10 to the auditions and backstage sign up for Buggy Malone. Pupils were put through three hours of singing, dance and script assessment so that we could cast the play and what a tremendous effort they all put in! In addition we have a full complement of Set and Props, Hair and Make up, Lighting and Sound and Stage Management crews.

We rehearse on a Monday, Thursday and Sunday with technical options taking place on a Wednesday. Miss Parker has been taking soloists through their songs:

Lizzy (Y9, L) has been cast as Blousey, Here she is rehearsing her song 'I'm Feeling Fine', really getting that Bluesy spirit whilst Holly (Y9, R) vamped it up as Tallulah. Barney (Y9, E) is really starting to capture the whimsical nature of Fizzy in 'Tomorrow'.
